

SERVICES

Family Law

Our firm provides comprehensive family law attorney services in St. Louis, MO. These services include divorce, child custody, modification of child custody, support and maintenance, paternity, ante- and postnuptial agreements, guardianships, and adoptions all under the expert guidance of our family law attorneys.

At Sandberg Phoenix, we understand that navigating the legal process in family law matters can be one of the most emotionally taxing experiences. Whether it's a divorce, paternity action, a motion to modify custody or support, or an Order of Protection, our attorneys are experienced in handling these family law issues from start to finish. Each family law attorney at Sandberg Phoenix has ample experience guiding clients through complex family law litigation, including third-party custody cases. They do so with compassion and strength, advocating for our clients and the best interest of their children and their families, working toward a favorable outcome for all.

Our services include, but are not limited to:

- Divorce/High asset divorce
- Child custody/High conflict custody
- Modification of custody, maintenance (alimony) and support
- Child support and maintenance (alimony)
- Paternity
- Guardianship
- Adoptions

- Assisted reproduction agreements
- Pre and post nuptial agreements

Our St. Louis family law attorneys also work with families in guardianship issues, adoptions, and other matters in the juvenile courts. At Sandberg Phoenix, each experienced family law attorney has the ability to counsel clients in interpreting laws and statutes and the application of those to their family's unique situation, ensuring that all aspects of family law are comprehensively covered.