

Jacqueline Redmond

SHAREHOLDER IN ST. LOUIS, MO

Jacqueline Redmond joined Sandberg Phoenix in 2018 as a shareholder. She focuses her practice on civil litigation defense with a concentration in products liability, premises liability and toxic tort defense including asbestos defense. Jacqueline has successfully defended a wide variety of premises, corporate and insurance clients in St. Louis City, Missouri; Madison County, Illinois; McLean County, Illinois and throughout the states of Illinois and Missouri.

She strives to limit clients' potential exposure and liability by identifying the client's needs and providing cost-effective solutions and results. She enjoys being able to work with a variety of clients with different legal issues and challenges. She has extensive experience in litigation including drafting and arguing dispositive motions, taking and defending depositions of both fact and expert witnesses, and identifying and preparing expert witnesses for trial testimony. She has won numerous motions before the court and has argued before the Missouri Court of Appeals, Eastern District.

Previously, Jacqueline represented and counseled self-insured corporations and insurance companies in the defense of Illinois and Missouri Workers' Compensation claims.

Jacqueline grew up on a small farm in Girard, Illinois. She now lives in St. Louis with her husband, two daughters Ellie and Findlay and dog Sally. She is active in her church and enjoys winter sports, playing the trumpet and travel.
