Jared joined Sandberg Phoenix in 2020 as a member of the Business Litigation practice group. He focuses his practice on assisting corporate clients, business owners, and other individuals with appellate advocacy and complex commercial, employment, and professional liability litigation. Lately, his practice has expanded to also assisting those involved in complex construction disputes.

Prior to joining Sandberg Phoenix, Jared successfully defended state and local municipalities in employment and civil rights litigation and appellate actions at the state and federal level.

Outside the office, Jared enjoys spending time with his family and friends, hunting, fishing, and reading. He is also an avid fan of Mizzou athletics and the Kansas City Chiefs.
