

AUGUST 29, 2022

Sandberg Phoenix Expands to Gainesville, Florida with Office, Staff

NEWS & EVENTS: PRESS RELEASE, IN THE NEWS

RELATED ATTORNEYS: RICHARD MALTBY, ANDREA TRUE PARKER, BHAVIK PATEL

Sandberg Phoenix has announced a new office and new hires in Gainesville, Florida.

Shareholder Rich Maltby recently assumed the role of Managing Attorney for the firm's newest location - Gainesville, Florida. Maltby joined the firm in 2021 and specializes in business law, complex commercial litigation, local government and land use, taxation, real estate and construction, business succession and wealth planning, and probate and trust litigation. The office will offer comprehensive legal services, with specialties in business litigation, real estate litigation, commercial litigation and wealth planning services. The firm has also welcomed attorney Andrea Parker to the Gainesville office. Parker brings with her a broad scope of experience with litigation and local government.

Maltby stated, "We are excited to have a physical office in the area to better serve our current and future clients. Andrea brings a wealth of knowledge and will help us as we expand to meet the increasing needs of clients."

CEO and Managing Partner, Bhavik Patel, has indicated more growth in Florida is on the horizon.