

JUNE 15, 2023

Sandberg Phoenix Shareholder Allison Schreiber Lee Appointed Special Assistant Circuit Court Attorney for City of St. Louis

NEWS & EVENTS: FIRM NEWS, IN THE NEWS

RELATED ATTORNEYS: ALLISON SCHREIBER LEE

Sandberg Phoenix Shareholder Allison Schreiber Lee has been appointed as special assistant circuit court attorney for the city of St. Louis. Lee maintains her role as a shareholder and practicing attorney during the appointment.

Of the appointment, Lee says, "As a special assistant, I am thrilled to not only advocate for my clients with my full-time family law practice, but also serve the city by donating my pro bono hours to the Circuit Attorney."

Lee joined Sandberg Phoenix in 2022. Her practice includes high conflict custody and high asset matters, as well as family law matters involving issues of addiction and mental health concerns. Lee's practices also includes prenuptial and post-nuptial agreements, and in seeking and defending against Orders of Protection. Her representation of both husbands and wives allows her a distinctive understanding of what the other side is planning in litigation.