Sandberg Phoenix Listed as “Go-To” Firm for Fortune 500 Companies

NEWS & EVENTS: IN THE NEWS

PRACTICE GROUP: HEALTH LAW

For our outstanding service for large companies, American Lawyer Media has listed Sandberg Phoenix & von Gontard as one of its 2013 Go-To Law Firms.

This designation establishes Sandberg Phoenix as part of an exclusive group of firms that consistently deliver exceptional work for Fortune 500 companies. The recognition is based on data gathered from such companies' General Counsels and through research in various key databases to determine which firms those companies rely upon for outside legal assistance in several practice areas.

Sandberg Phoenix was recognized in particular because of our work with Medtronic, Inc. on Torts Litigation in our Health Law practice group.

For more than 30 years, Sandberg Phoenix has built a reputation as a trusted ally for Corporate Counsels and is heavily depended on by a number of high profile clients to defend product integrity and save and recover funds.

American Lawyer Media distributes to and collects annual surveys from Fortune 500 businesses to assess their use of outside legal assistance to compile their rankings, which are featured in publications including The American Lawyer, Corporate Counsel and The National Law Journal. Sandberg Phoenix is proud of this recognition and has backed up our commitment to superior client service through our unique quality guarantee. Whether representing a Fortune 500 company or an individual, we tirelessly pursue the best possible results for our clients.
