Recognized for their academic and career accomplishments, their ability to overcome obstacles in their lives and careers, their community involvement, and their potential to make a difference in the profession, the legal system or the community, 2013 Up & Coming award recipients were selected by the editors of Missouri Lawyers Weekly. More than 170 Missouri attorneys were nominated in 2013, with 48 lawyers under the age of 40 or within the first ten years of their legal careers receiving recognition.

Sandberg Phoenix Shareholder Aaron French was honored as one of the 2013 recipients of the Up & Coming award for his leadership role in the Business Litigation practice group and for his mentorship of attorneys in his practice area. Aaron's achievements as an attorney are the result of his substantial experience in litigation, including before state and federal courts. Whether trying cases to judges or juries or negotiating a settlement, Aaron continually works in pursuit of the complete satisfaction of his clients.

Along with the rest of the honorees, including Up & Coming Law Firm Leader winner and Sandberg Phoenix Shareholder Bhavik Patel, Aaron will be recognized at the awards ceremony on September 13.
