

OCTOBER 28, 2018

With New Ideas, Comes New Leadership

NEWS & EVENTS: FIRM NEWS

PRACTICE GROUP: BUSINESS LITIGATION, PRODUCTS LIABILITY

RELATED ATTORNEYS: AARON FRENCH, KEVIN KRUEGER

The firm is pleased to announce that as of November 1, Shareholder Aaron French will assume a role on the firm's Executive Committee. Aaron joined Sandberg Phoenix 15 years ago and has served as Business Litigation Practice Group Leader for over six years. With Aaron's transition, Shareholder Timothy O'Leary will fill the Business Litigation Practice Group Leader role. Tim has been with the firm for over 10 years and pioneered the Sandberg Phoenix Legal Project Management initiative. He is extremely passionate about the group and is excited to begin to work in this new role.

The firm would like to congratulate both Aaron and Tim and wish them success as they take on these roles, and look forward to their continued leadership and mentoring.

Sandberg Phoenix would like to thank Kevin Krueger for his excellent service on the Executive Committee, as he will be passing the torch to Aaron, and welcome his continued and valued input.