

Jonathan McCrary

SHAREHOLDER IN ST. LOUIS, MO

Jonathan McCrary brings more than 16 years of experience in health law and medical malpractice. As a partner with several law firms in Memphis, Tennessee, Jonathan developed a strong background in civil litigation, including nursing home, medical malpractice, nursing malpractice, hospital defense, product liability defense, insurance defense, subrogation, worker's compensation, probate and coverage litigation in federal and state courts. He has worked with nearly every major health care group, from long-term care providers and physician and nursing groups to public and private health care institutions.

Through his zealous advocacy, Jonathan has obtained numerous summary judgments and other favorable outcomes for his clients. He currently serves as Chair of the Sandberg Phoenix Long-Term Care and Senior Living Committee.

One of Jonathan's many strengths is his breadth of experience working with a variety of different clients within the health care industry. This exposure has given him a rare insight into the various factors affecting the business environment in which his clients operate, as well as the many issues at play when these clients are facing litigation. Jonathan constantly pursues new, intricate cases to advance his legal skills, because he appreciates the challenge of adapting his skills to unique scenarios.

Away from his legal practice, Jonathan spends his time with his wife and sons and enjoys reading fiction and nonfiction. He can frequently be found on the golf course, running or cheering on the Memphis Tigers, Memphis Grizzlies and St. Louis Cardinals teams.
