

Andrea True Parker

ATTORNEY IN GAINESVILLE, FL

Andrea joined Sandberg Phoenix in 2022 and is a member of the Business Litigation practice group. She represents clients throughout the State of Florida. Andrea has over seven years of litigation experience and has achieved successful results for her clients inside and outside the courtroom.

Prior to joining Sandberg Phoenix, Andrea was a litigation associate focusing largely in family law. With her family law background, Andrea has extensive mediation and negotiation experience and is able to relate with clients on a personal level. Andrea also served as an Assistant City Attorney for several municipalities in North Central Florida. As Assistant City Attorney, Andrea represented and advised local municipalities on a variety of matters, including labor and employment law, zoning and development, claims against police and fire departments and compliance with state and federal regulations.

Andrea is actively involved in the local legal community. She served as the President for the Eighth Judicial Circuit Young Lawyers Division in 2020. Outside of the office, Andrea enjoys traveling and spending time with her husband, two sons and puppy.
