Attorney Michael Eberle joined the firm in 2023, and is an attorney in our Business Litigation Group. He also serves as a member of the firm's Real Estate Litigation Team, and regularly represents property-owners in disputes involving Unlawful Detainer and Rent and Possession cases.

Michael represents local apartment complex, mobile home, and manufactured housing communities. With the increasing cost of housing, it's more important than ever for landlords to make wise decisions regarding their tenants. Whether you own a trailer park or a luxury apartments, you need a lawyer with experience and know-how to keep your investment producing returns.

Michael has represented a variety of clients. He has a background in creditor's rights and toxic torts. He recently obtained a favorable settlement for a local artist whose artwork was destroyed by a public institution. Outside of work, he enjoys Escape Rooms and trivia.
