Medical Malpractice Defense

Our firm has focused on defending medical providers accused of negligence since our inception.

We have defended over 5,000 medical malpractice claims and we represent more than 90% of the hospitals in our geographic region, from community-based facilities to world-class medical centers. Our unmatched reputation grows from our successful defense of the most complicated, high-exposure cases. Members of our team have recognized expertise in obstetric and pediatric claims, cardiopulmonary complications, anesthesia and surgical emergencies, neurological events and psychiatric care. Our blend of industry knowledge and litigation experience has nurtured relationships with our clients that span decades.

Our team of medical malpractice attorneys has been widely recognized by major local and national publications for their excellence in defending health care providers.
