Jared Byrne

SHAREHOLDER IN ST. LOUIS, MO

Jared Byrne is a shareholder of the firm. He joined Sandberg Phoenix in early 2013 as an associate after working for several years as a prosecutor and attorney in the St. Louis area, and works primarily with the Health Law team.

Jared's previous experience at a civil litigation defense firm and as a prosecutor have uniquely positioned him to take a comprehensive approach to each individual case, examining all aspects of the situation, ensuring that his clients receive the most informed, complete legal advice. He thrives on the ability to understand his clients' goals and on formulating a plan to achieve them.

After graduating with his law degree, Jared served as the City Counselor for the Village of Caledonia and City of Irondale, before serving as an Assistant Prosecutor in Washington County, where he represented the State of Missouri on many criminal matters in both jury and bench trials. In 2010, he joined Pitzer Snodgrass as an attorney and worked with clients primarily from the healthcare and long-term care industries.

Outside of his legal career, Jared enjoys collecting records, fishing and spending time outdoors with his family.
